

Report on significant event conducted – August 2018

District Level Farmers Seminar on Improved Practices in Rainfed farming

District level Farmers Seminar on Improved practices in Rainfed farming has been conducted by ICAR-KVK Perambalur in collaboration with ATMA, Perambalur and All India Radio, Trichirappalli on 21.08.2018 at KVK. The programme was inaugurated by Shri. A. Alagirisami, DRO, Perambalur. Dr.K.Varadharaajen, Chairman of the KVK presided. Shri. T.S.K.Pillai, DDG(Engineering) and Shri.K.Natarajan, Director, AIR, Trichy delivered special address. Dr.P.Thangavel, Dean, Roever Agricultural College, Perambalur. Dr.N.Meiyazhagan, Professor and Head, Cotton Research Station, Veppanthattai, Shri.L.S.Naveen Kumar, DDM, NABARD felicitated. Dr.V.E.Nethaji Mariappan, Senior Scientist and Head, ICAR-KVK Perambalur welcomed the gathering and Shri J.Kathiravan, SMS(Horticulture) proposed vote of thanks. Around 300 farmers from various villages of Perambalur district have been participated. 12 agencies have put up stall and exhibit their products to the farmers. Technical lectures on Semi dry rice cultivation, improved agronomical practices in Maize and Cotton, IPM in Chilli cultivation were given by Scientist from TNAU and Central IPM Centre, Trichy. All the participants were provided with Teakwood saplings as compliment. The Programme was recorded and broadcasted by All India Radio, Trichy.

