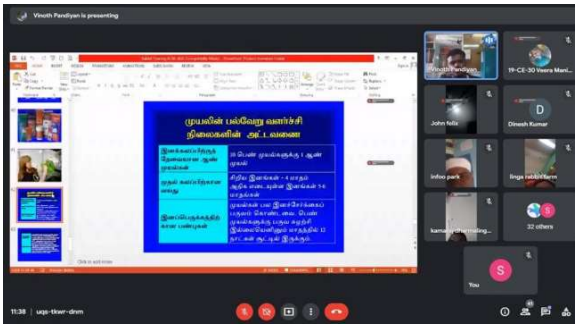
Report on significant event conducted – JUNE 2021

Training on Rabbit rearing

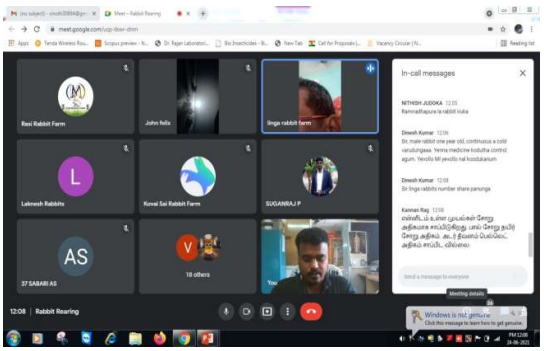
ICAR- KVK Perambalur organised one day training programme on Rabbit rearing through virtual mode on 24.06.2021. The programme as inaugurated by Mr.P.Dominic Manoj SMS Plant Protection. He delivered lectured on various importance of Rabbit rearing. Dr. P. Vinoth, SMS Animal Science presented about the Rabbit selection, feeding method, housing, reproduction and disease management. In India, human consumption of rabbit for meat purpose because of its taste and nutrient content. It is lower in cholesterol and fat and higher in protein. Rabbit grow rapidly and gain maturity within 4 to 5 months.

Many farmer in Perambalur district has inspired by earning considerable profit from Rabbit rearing. Totally 47 members were participated in this training.

As a part of Jal Sakthi Abhiyan, Dr. P. Vinoth explained about water management for livestock. especially for Perambalur district.



Webinar training on Rabbit rearing



Feedback from participants